NMSU ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT
MISSION STATEMENT

To support the vision of New Mexico State University by providing an athletic program of local and national acclaim in an equitable, diverse environment that supports student-athlete excellence in academics and athletics, and that engages the University community and stakeholders in achieving and celebrating Aggies’ success.

POLICIES ON CONDUCT

NMSU has established a tradition of ethical conduct at all levels of university life. Violations of NMSU policy regarding academics, residence life, and general conduct are handled in the same manner as for the general student body – NMSU Student Handbook (https://studenthandbook.nmsu.edu/) However, the Athletic Department and respective Head Coaches may implement additional sanctions, if warranted. In accordance with this tradition, all student-athletes involved in the intercollegiate athletics program are expected to represent the university in a sportsmanlike manner at all times and in all places. This includes, but is not limited to Social Networking Sites, such as Twitter, Facebook, etc.

UNIVERSITY TICKETS, FINES AND FEES

You are responsible for paying all University fines assigned to you. This includes, but is not limited to, fines for dorm damages, overdue library books, telephone charges, and unpaid parking tickets. Failure to pay such fines could jeopardize your registration for classes. Student-athletes are responsible for all online course fees. Scholarship student-athletes who are on full athletic grant-in-aid may request to have this fee covered by his/her scholarship ONLY IF the class is in his/her major AND it is not offered on campus.

TEAM RULES

Each Head Coach has the option to prepare team rules that apply for each new season.

TEAM TRAVEL CONDUCT

Any student-athlete and/or student serving in an official capacity for the NMSU Athletics Department are representatives of New Mexico State University. As a representative of the University such students traveling individually or as a team/group to an intercollegiate athletic contest shall agree to abide by the laws of the State of New Mexico, the local state government, University policies, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics policies, and team rules. Under no circumstances shall a student-athlete possess a firearm or weapon of any kind at any time during team travel. Student-athletes and/or students serving in an official capacity for the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics shall be responsible for acting in accordance with such laws, policies, and rules during the entire period of travel and competition.

ETHICAL CONDUCT – SPORTS PARTICIPATION

• You must compete with honesty and sportsmanship at all times so that you represent the honor and dignity of fair play [NCAA Bylaw 10.01.1].
• You are not eligible to compete if you have shown dishonesty in evading or violating NCAA regulations [NCAA Bylaw 14.01.3].

SPORTSMANLIKE CONDUCT

All student-athletes are expected to conduct themselves both on and off the field in a manner that will bring respect to their teammates, coaches, and university. The New Mexico State University fully supports the principles of sportsmanship adopted by the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Conference USA. It does so not only because it is a member of those organizations, but more importantly because the concept of sportsmanship embodies the principles on which this and other great universities have been established: the attainment and celebration of excellence, respect for and acceptance of those with whom we differ, and our commitment to the highest standards of integrity.
ATTAINING AND CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE

Whether it is grades, promotion and tenure, or graduation; New Mexico State University is committed to the principle that the rewards it bestows; should be granted on the basis of adherence to community standards. These celebrations are the time when the campus recognizes those who have excelled in meeting these standards and the campus’s ultimate goal – acquiring and advancing knowledge. In sponsoring intercollegiate athletics, the university provides opportunities for students not only to achieve excellence in sports, but also to attain the life skills associated with participation in sports that will benefit them personally and professionally. It is entirely appropriate that we, as a community, enthusiastically support their efforts. In doing so, we gain a source of campus unity and an appreciation of the commitment of student-athletes to achieving personal excellence. New Mexico State University sportsmanship implies and perhaps requires that we support our teams as they strive for excellence in their sport.

RESPECT

In an environment that celebrates diversity and freedom of expression, we must respect the opinions and rights of others. Our commitment to freedom of expression must not result in the denial of others’ rights and/or the creation of an environment that discourages an individual’s participation in campus life. Achieving the right balance amongst these, sometimes conflicting interests, is one of the most difficult challenges a civil society faces.

In intercollegiate athletics, this balance can be achieved only by maintaining respect for the game, our teams, the opponent, and our institution. We celebrate the contest and the spirit of competition, but must remember that the value of victory is measured by the esteem one holds for the opponent. Thus, sportsmanship entails respecting our student-athletes and their opponents as well as the officials, coaches, and fans. It means celebrating performance – by either side. Our campus values require that respect – for the game and our campus – must be a fundamental component of our understanding of sportsmanship.

INTEGRITY

Acts that violate our integrity strike at the very heart of our campus. Whether it is plagiarism, cheating, or fraud, by students, faculty, or staff, lack of integrity cannot be tolerated. Increasingly the campus has focused attention on the integrity of the educational enterprise and research. No less important is an intercollegiate athletics program that meets the highest standards of integrity. For this reason, the campus has positioned itself as a leader in the NCAA certification process. Winning within the rules must be one of the components of our understanding of sportsmanship and WAC rules governing sanctions and sportsmanship violations. New Mexico State sportsmanship means that administrators, coaches and participants must know the rules and be committed to following them.

DIVERSITY/PRAYER POLICY

Our student-athletes come from many diverse socio-economic backgrounds so building an inclusive diverse environment within the department of athletics, university community, surrounding Las Cruces community is essential. We will continue to promote a comprehensive effort ensuring processes and programs are impartial, fair and provide equal possible outcomes for every individual creating a practice of making people feel a sense of belonging.

NM State Athletics will collaborate with the university, conference office and the NCAA to strategize and formulate an overarching theme in establishing an intentional method in delivering relevant programing, training and educational initiatives for all student-athletes, coaches and staff members. Striving to establish a collaborative and cohesive partnerships systemwide to accomplish a socially just climate and sense of belonging for all Aggies and for our community partners will be our collective mission.
ACADEMIC CONDUCT

All student-athletes must abide by the New Mexico State Student Handbook Academic Conduct Policy. Students at NMSU are expected to observe and maintain the highest academic, ethical, and professional standards of conduct. Any student found guilty of academic misconduct shall be subject to disciplinary action per the NMSU Student Handbook. Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, the following actions:

1) Cheating or knowingly assisting another student in committing an act of cheating or other forms of academic dishonesty.
2) Plagiarism, which includes, but is not necessarily limited to, submitting examinations, themes, reports, drawings, laboratory notes, undocumented quotations, computer-processed materials, or other material as one’s own work when such work has been prepared by another person or copied from another person.
3) Unauthorized possession of examinations, reserve library materials, or laboratory materials.
4) Unauthorized changing of grades on an examination, or on a grade report; or unauthorized access to academic computer records.
5) Nondisclosure or misrepresentation in filling out applications or other university records in, or for, academic departments or colleges.

ACADEMIC EXPECTATIONS

New Mexico State University Academic Support Programs & Services Center is committed to providing quality educational services that achieve academic, personal and career success for all student-athletes. The ASPSC offers a full range of support and referral services to assist student-athletes in their holistic growth and development. The Associate Athletics Director provides the overall leadership to the unit as well as partnership to Student Affairs on campus. The Director of the ASPSC supervises the day-to-day operational aspects of the center with a highly qualified staff including: two full time Academic Coordinators, one Learning Specialist and Student Development Specialists who are all dedicated to helping student-athletes develop the skills necessary to become independent and successful learners.

The ASPSC Staff utilizes Canvas to provide up to date information on helpful resources; deadlines; and pertinent information and changes. Student-athletes are expected to “accept” the ASPSC class on their Canvas page and refer to it regularly.

We currently serve 400 student-athletes, with an average of 90 coming through our doors on a daily basis for a variety of reasons. Our academic center is open 67 hours a week for student athletes to engage in their educational pursuit through the programs and services. With the appropriate internal and external personnel and resources working towards the common goal of graduation, every student-athlete will be assured to have the necessary tools to maintain and surpass steady progression toward their fulfillment of their degree requirements.

The ASPSC Staff understand that participating in NCAA Division I athletics presents additional challenges for student-athletes. The ASPSC provides student-athletes with an environment that promotes respect and integrity for academic honesty and success. We are devoted to coordinating and implementing a variety of support systems to encourage the academic success of our student-athletes as they pursue their college degrees and athletic goals.

The most comprehensive aspect of the programs and services we offer to student-athletes is our Early Warning Academic System which was designed and implemented to improve our student-athletes continued success by establishing communication with Professors to ensure strong academic progress throughout each semester. One branch of the system is the Professor E-mail Academic Requests that are sent out periodically during each semester which helps create a one-to-one intervention throughout the semester between the professor/instructor, student-athlete and academic office for student-athletes. As a partnership, this method provides an avenue for continued communication throughout the semester on concerns such as academic progress in the course and class attendance. This method has been shown statistically to connect the student-athlete’s class attendance and their correlation to academic success. Ultimately, the Early Warning Academic System provides a better connection for the student-athlete to utilize the various programs and services offered to them through ASPSC.

The Academic Support Programs and Services Center (ASPSC) is located in the Fulton Center and provides an environment conducive to study for all student-athletes. The ASPSC includes an Internet Lab, Writing Lab, learning lab rooms for individual or group study and tutor/mentor meetings as well as a classroom for team study and/or presentations. In most cases, student-athletes are required to complete eight (8) hours of study hall each week in the academic center. Study Hall hours are required for all incoming freshman, transfer students, and returning student-athletes with less than a 2.5 cumulative grade point average. It is the student-athlete’s responsibility to sign-in and sign-out when using the ASPSC. Student-athletes will be notified if they are required to complete study hours and they will be expected to do so until their academic status changes. All student-athletes must follow written policies when utilizing the ASPSC. A copy of these policies is available for review at the front desk of the ASPSC. Coaches are immediately notified when a student-athlete fails to follow the rules. Consequences for failure to follow the rules may result in the student-athlete’s suspension from the Center. Coaches in each sport receive a weekly study lab report.
The ASPSC offers several academic services to all student-athletes that include: expert tutoring, mentoring, and academic support are available for all levels of course work. All services through the ASPSC emphasize the importance of education and guide student-athletes to develop the skills necessary to become independent and successful learners.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES

TUTORS (available to all student-athletes) – provide specialized assistance in specific subject areas. The intent of the tutoring program is to supplement and support sound education practices (class attendance, note-taking, reviewing and preparing properly for quizzes and exams, and staying current with all assignments) which are imperative for academic success for all students. The purpose of the tutoring program is enhancing their understanding of the material, not to do student-athletes’ work for them. Tutoring is available for all student-athletes throughout the academic year. At the student athlete’s request, he or she is assigned a tutor. The tutor and student-athlete work together to develop the independent thinking and learning skills necessary to achieve positive success in the classroom.

All student-athletes are encouraged to actively participate in this program. The tutors hired by ASPSC are generally upperclassmen and graduate students who have outstanding academic backgrounds. These tutors are required to attend orientation sessions with ASPSC Staff, Athletic Compliance Office staff, and University Student Support Service Staff. These sessions provide training in the areas of responsibilities of the tutor including, but not limited to, study skills techniques, rapport building, interpersonal communication, and many other skill areas that will enable them to be effective in their positions. Student-athletes can request a tutor at the ASPSC. If they should encounter a problem with a tutor assignment, they need to speak with ASPSC Staff. When a student-athlete requests a tutor, he or she is expected to:

- Attend all scheduled appointments
- Be on time for all scheduled appointments
- Come to the appointments prepared

If a study-athlete is not able to attend a scheduled meeting, he or she must contact the tutor prior to the scheduled appointment.

LEARNING SPECIALIST – The Learning Specialist develops a unique, individualized plan with students to reach their academic goals. The Learning Specialist provides academic coaching and support for students who may not know where to start or how to reach their personal potential. The goal of the Learning Specialist is to help you achieve.

The Learning specialist will:

- Discuss your learning strengths and weaknesses
- Establish learning goals with you
- Discover your best learning strategies
- Identify campus resources you should use
- Develop an individualized action plan for you to implement

MENTORS (available to all student-athletes; mandatory for 1st semester freshman, transfers, and certain other designated pre-selected student-athletes whose academic profile is marginal) – provide study skills assistance for those needing help in the areas of test preparation, time management, note-taking, and organizational skills. The primary focus will always be the academic performance of the student-athlete being mentored. Mentors will establish relationships that are especially nurturing to their student-athletes’ psychological and social well-being during their assigned student-athletes’ college career. These trained mentors will normally spend 1-2 hours per week with an assigned student-athlete working on academically related topics as well as assisting with any concerns a student-athlete may have related to his or her academic progress.
PRE-ADVISING SERVICES – works in cooperation with advisors in the various academic colleges to ensure that factors such as degree progress, course selection, practice times, and travel schedules are addressed in the student-athlete’s schedule of classes. Pre-advisement is required for all freshman regardless of major, all 1st and 2nd semester transfer student-athletes, all those who have not declared a major or who are changing their major, and all student-athletes who have less than a 2.5 cumulative GPA.

PROGRESS MONITORING – At least once each semester, each student-athlete’s academic progress, attendance and participation is requested from their instructors. This information is then shared with the student-athlete, their coaches and is used to monitor how the student athlete is performing in the classroom. Strategies may then be implemented to address any deficiencies on a case-by-case basis. If you wish to have a printout of your Academic Progress Report, you may request one in the ASPSC.

A+ AGGIE PROGRAM – focused on student-athletes who need additional support and programs for academic, personal and career development. While all student-athletes have access to the A+ Aggie Program, our priority is given to those who have tested into developmental courses, has a documented learning disability or who have been identified as having a marginal academic profile based on their high school or NMSU academic portfolio. The mission is to teach and promote lifelong educational, personal and career skills for student-athletes. In addition, personalized attention is given to each student through a collaboration of individual and group services with program goals focusing on providing assistance, advice, teaching and encouragement in specific content and general study skill areas. Ultimately, the training mechanisms will enhance and develop thinking and homework skills for student athletes to progress and advance towards the supplement of tutoring and mentoring opposed to the need of the services.

STUDY LABS – Provide an environment conducive to study for all student-athletes. This includes an Internet lab, writing computer lab, and learning labs for study groups, tutor/mentor meetings, and individual study. Study hall hours are generally required for all incoming freshman and transfer student-athletes as well as returning student-athletes with less than a 2.5 GPA. In most cases, student-athletes must complete 8 hours per week in the ASPSC. Student-athletes will be notified by their coaching staff if they are required to attend study hall and will be expected to do so until their status changes. Study hall hours are reported to head coaches and academic liaisons every Monday or throughout the week when requested.

REGULAR CONFERENCES – Regular meetings are established with Head Coaches/ Academic Liaisons in each sport and the Team’s Academic Coordinator to discuss academic areas of concern.

GUEST SPEAKER SERVICES – Each year the Athletic Department may sponsor occasional workshops and seminars on the most pressing issues as they relate to the lives of student-athletes. Our Continuing Educational Programming will focus on today’s enhancements, concerns, and topics of interest impacting the lives of student-athletes. Past seminar topics have included gambling and eating disorders.
New Mexico State University Academic Support Programs and Services Center is committed to providing quality educational services that achieve academic, personal, and career success for all student-athletes. Our goal is to create an equitable, diverse environment that supports student-athletes’ excellence in academics and athletics that engages the university community and stakeholders in achieving and celebrating Aggies’ success.

In order to increase academic progress and productivity for our student-athletes organized practice activities; length of respective playing seasons; the number of regular-season contest/dates of competition; and participation in non-collegiate-sponsored athletics activities has been modified. No class time or scheduled academic appointments shall be missed for practice activities. Student-athletes are expected to attend every class meeting, complete all assignments and exhibit appropriate behavior in class. Student-athletes are required to be on time for every class and remain in class for the duration of the class period. If unforeseen circumstances cause a student-athlete to be late or miss class, he/she should meet with the professor/instructor after class or make an appointment during office hours to explain the circumstances.

Pre-selected student-athletes, due to their marginal academic profiles, are also required to attend all assigned academic appointments (study hall, mentoring, tutoring, Learning Specialist, major advisor and athletic advisor meetings) throughout the course of the semester.

Students will be excused from their classes when they are representing NMSU at a university sponsored event per University Attendance and Student Performance policy. If a student-athlete must miss class due to serious injury or serious illness, he/she must submit official medical documentation to the Academic Support Programs and Services Center and his/her respective professors/instructors within 24 hours of returning to class.

Student-athletes bear the responsibility of informing and making arrangements with their professors/instructors to complete all missed assignments due to absences for competition, serious illness or medical reasons.

Problems in completing missed assignments due to athletic competition, serious illness, or medical reasons are to be reported to the ASPSC immediately. Student-athletes are not permitted, under any circumstance, to miss class to attend practice.

AGGIE SUMMER SCHOOL & FIFTH-YEAR GRANT-IN-AID POLICY

GENERAL INFORMATION

All students who live in on-campus housing are responsible for any charges related to the condition of their room at check-out. Students will be required to pay a $200 deposit at the beginning of the academic year. Assuming the room is kept according to policy and procedure, students should receive their deposit upon the end of the academic year. Students are expected to leave their room/apartment “broom clean” at the time of check-out and free of possessions, trash, debris, etc. All rooms/apartments are inspected prior to occupancy and residents are provided a copy of their Room Condition Report (RCR) documenting move-in condition. Residents are advised to review their RCR to ensure they agree with the assessment of their room/apartment. Any areas of disagreement should be brought to the attention of Housing staff immediately so the RCR can be updated.

At the time of check-out, it is recommended that residents do a walk-through of their room/apartment with a Housing staff member to assess the closing condition. All damages that were not noted on the move-in RCR become the responsibility of the resident along with any charges for trash or debris removal. These charges are posted to the students’ accounts; athletic scholarship funds may not be used to pay these charges. Lack of payment can result in blocks which can prevent registration and the issuing of diploma, and transcripts.

PRE-SEASON/POST-SEASON HOUSING

Coaches will make arrangements for preseason/postseason housing and meals when student athletes are required to participate in preseason practice or postseason competition.

CAMPUS BREAK HOUSING

For student-athletes who are required to stay on campus during a break period for practice and/or competition, housing arrangements will be made by the coach, with the assistance of the Associate AD/Student Development. Other student-athletes who elect to stay on campus during a break must make arrangements through the Housing Office (student pays own fees).

MISSED CLASS POLICY

In order to minimize interference with student-athlete’s academic programs, coaches will limit organized practice activities, the length of their playing seasons, the number of regular-season contest/dates of competition, and participation in non-collegiate-sponsored athletics activities. No class time shall be missed for practice activities except when a team is traveling to an away contest and the practice is in conjunction with the contest.

Student-athletes are expected to attend every class meeting unless competition, serious injury, or serious illness prevents such attendance. Students who must miss class to represent the University or to participate in a University-sponsored activity will be excused per University policy. “Students making satisfactory progress in their classes will be excused from classes when they are representing NMSU on a university sponsored event. Authorized absences do not relieve the student of their class responsibilities. Prior written notice of the authorized absence will be provided to the instructor by the sponsoring department.”

The Academic Support Programs & Services Center generates a “Travel Excuse Letter” which notifies each respective professor/instructor of a student-athlete’s competition and or travel dates. The “Travel Excuse Letter” will be emailed to professors by the ASPSC staff at the beginning of each semester. The letter includes the student-athlete’s name, sport, identification number, sport schedule and dates of classes the student-athlete will be missing for away-travel and pre-game home competition when applicable. If there are potential problems or concerns based on the professor/instructor class syllabus (i.e. too many class days missed or absent on testing dates) it is advised that the student-athlete speak with their Athletic Academic Coordinator. Changes to class schedules are not permitted after the second week of class without departmental signatures so it is imperative that class alternatives be handled within the first week of classes. Student-athletes are expected to be on time for every class and remain in class for the duration of the class period. If unforeseen circumstances cause a student-athlete to be late or miss the class, he/she should meet the professor/instructor after class or make an appointment to apologize and explain the circumstances.
NCAA INITIATIVE: STUDENT-ATHLETE AFFAIRS PROGRAM

The NCAA Student-Athlete Affairs unit provides life skills support in the areas of academics, athletics, personal development, career development and service through the distribution of accessible resources, strategic partnerships and customized programming at little or no expense to member institutions. Student-Athlete Affairs programs, resources and events are designed to promote the well-being and development of student-athletes and to provide on-going education and training to athletics professionals who identify and serve student-athlete needs.

The mission of the NCAA is to maintain intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of the campus education program and the student-athlete as an integral part of the student body. With this in mind, Student-Athlete Affairs was created to support the student-athlete initiatives of NCAA member institutions and to enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience within the context of higher education.

In the process of achieving this mission, the Student-Athlete Affairs will:

- Promote student-athletes’ ownership of their academic, athletic, career, personal and community responsibilities.
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes.
- Promote respect for diversity and inclusion among student-athletes.
- Assist student-athletes in identifying and applying transferable skills.
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education.
- Foster an environment that encourages student-athletes to effectively access campus resources.
- Encourage the development of character, integrity and leadership skills.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

New Mexico State University’s Athletic Department, along with Mr. Mario Moccia, has established a plan in which all student-athletes are expected to complete a 15-hour requirement of Community Service per year. With this requirement in effect, Aggie student-athletes have been increasingly involved in the community. Our objectives remain to build loyal and active supporters and to maximize opportunities to partner with the individuals around us. As a way of giving back to the Las Cruces community, Aggie student-athletes have visited local schools to speak to the children about making good choices, getting good grades and striving to be the best they can be. They have worked with Big Brothers Big Sisters, the Salvation Army, and the Lions Club. Our athletes have helped with the Special Olympics, soup kitchens, triathlons, and Relay for Life. We are constantly seeking new opportunities and look forward to furthering our bond with the many supporters of all our NMSU student-athletes.

How do student-athletes get informed so they can sign up to participate in community service activities?

- Emails will be sent out to Coaches, SAAC & Student-Athletes for any community service events that need volunteers
- SAAC representatives will notify their teams of any upcoming events.

Once a community service project has been established, how do student-athletes sign up?

- Please inform your coach of your interest in participating in the community service project and they will let the Marketing office know you will be available to participate in the event.
How will a student-athlete’s participation in these programs be recorded in order to receive community services points?

• At each event, there needs to be a sign-up sheet, either provided by the coordinator of that event, Coach, a SAAC rep, or designated student-athlete. In order to receive Community Service credits, you must sign to verify your attendance.

• Your Coach will either email the list of those individuals in attendance to the Community Service Coordinator, or a representative from the team can turn in the sign-in sheet to their team Academic Coordinator in the Fulton Academic Center.

• If a student-athlete performs community service in the Las Cruces community, outside of team organized functions, he/she must receive a signature from the coordinator/person in charge of the event to verify his/her participation. That form must be turned in to their team Academic Coordinator.

Are there any rules or regulations that need to be abided by?

• The community service event must benefit the Las Cruces community. Community Service done out of the Las Cruces community will not be counted toward your 15-hour requirement without prior approval.

• All promotional activities must abide by the NMSU Athletics Compliance and Eligibility release form which outlines NCAA bylaws.

Can student-athletes do community service on their own?

• Yes. It still must be approved before you go participate in the community service project. The organizer of the event can fill out our online Community Service Request Form by going to our website at www.nmstatesports.com and going under the heading Academics and the subheading Community Events. The student-athlete must receive a signature from the coordinator/person in charge of the event to verify his/her participation. That form must be turned in to their team Academic Coordinator.

• Your team Academic Coordinator has a list of commonly approved community service options in the Las Cruces community.

Can I use community service I do for a class, or for camps for my sport toward my 15 hours?

• Yes, but only for a total of 5 hours combined.

VARSITY LETTER AWARDS

All student-athletes at New Mexico State University who participate in an intercollegiate athletics program are eligible to earn a varsity letter. Upon earning an initial varsity letter, student-athletes will be awarded a varsity letter jacket. In order to letter, student-athletes must meet the specific sport’s requirements.

SCHOLAR ATHLETE HONOR ROLL

Student-athletes who earn a semester GPA of 3.000 or greater are honored each semester by placement on the Scholar Athlete Honor Roll. In the spring semester, student-athletes who earned 3.000 or higher from the previous spring and fall semesters are honored at a special halftime presentation at a home basketball game.
MEDIA RELATIONS

Athletic Media Relations is a service organization established as the contact between coaches/athletes and the media, both print and electronic. The Sports Information Office prepares news releases, hometown releases (as appropriate), programs and team/individual statistics. Information is available through traditional means such as athletic media guides, but also through the Aggie athletic website at www.nmstatesports.com. Athletic Media Relations also provides information to service bureaus for sports, photography, extensive permanent/historical records, and maintains athlete files, both undergraduate and alumni.

PRINT

With the immediacy of radio and television, print reports must dig deeper to keep their readers interested. Be prepared to spend more time on your answers. Try to give them the most in-depth view of your competition by using anecdotes, more detailed accounts of your event and more descriptive language. Every athlete has a fascinating story outside the competition arena – tell them your hobbies, interests and activities.

The print interview presents the greatest challenge because your spoken word is translated. You can finish up an interview with, “Are there any questions I can clear up?” It’s a good way to finish on the right note and clear up any misunderstandings.

TELEVISION

Television is looking for short, concise answers in the 10-20 second range. Your first impression is critical. A friendly smile and a “thank you” are good gestures. Speak up clearly and distinctly when on camera. Get directly to your key points. Maintain an even pace in your delivery. Use slight pauses to reinforce important statements. Look attentive and eager to talk. Body language is as important as what you say. Maintain eye contact with the person asking the questions instead of looking at the monitor. Keep body movement to a minimum. Be patient through technical difficulties with microphones or lighting. The image you present will remain on film for your lifetime, to be seen again and again.

RADIO

Radio is a very relaxed medium because it’s usually in a non-formal setting and the possibility of being misquoted is virtually zero. The interview is more like a conversation, and answers can range from 30-second sound bites to hours of live on-air dialogue.

Answers don’t have to be as short as those for television, and you will not need to pause as in newspaper interviews. Give good solid answers and don’t ramble. If the interview is taped for a later play, try to keep your answers within 10-20 seconds. Beware of long audible pauses – “uhhs” that creep into speech because they are accentuated on radio.

THE FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

The Faculty Athletic Representative (FAR) is appointed from the faculty by the President of the university. The FAR chairs the Athletic Council and with the assistance of the Council, advises the President on many aspects of intercollegiate athletics. The FAR is also the voting representative of the campus to the Conference USA and the NCAA.

You can contact the FAR to discuss any aspect of your experience as a student-athlete. If you wish to recommend policies that you think the Athletic Council should consider, start by asking the Student Athletic Advisory Council to support those changes, after having visited with your sport administrator. The current FAR is Dr. Kevin Melendrez and he can be reached by email at kdm@nmsu.edu or by phone 575-646-7199
SPORT ADMINISTRATORS

There are a number of athletic department sport administrators who work closely with the head coaches. These individuals are available to you to discuss any concerns or problems that you cannot manage successfully. They will advise you regarding your situation. It is imperative that you speak directly to your coach regarding issues or concerns prior to making an appointment with the respective sport administrator.

NMSU STANDARDS FOR ELIGIBILITY

Each student-athlete is ultimately responsible for keeping track of his/her eligibility status, with the support of his/her College Advisor, ASPSC Academic Coordinator, Compliance office, and coaching staff. You should meet regularly with your College Advisor, ASPSC and Compliance staff, to ensure your understanding of all academic rules and regulations that relate to your athletic eligibility. Please use the preceding information as a reference guide. Any specific questions you have should be discussed with the appropriate ASPSC and Compliance staff member and your college advisor.

NCAA POLICY: MAINTAINING YOUR ACADEMIC ELIGIBILITY

As a NMSU student-athlete, you are required to abide by a number of standards set by the NCAA, WAC, and NMSU. The student-athlete Handbook highlights some of these guidelines. However, it is the responsibility of the student-athlete to become familiar with all applicable guidelines.

1. Student-athletes are allowed four years of eligibility within five calendar years from the time they first enroll full-time in a collegiate institution. When they participate in any competition in their sport (including a scrimmage with outside competition), whether it is for one minute or an entire contest, they have used a season of competition and one of their four years of eligibility.

2. Student-athletes must be enrolled full-time, that is, carry a minimum of 12 credit hours each semester to be eligible to practice or compete with their team. If a student-athlete drops below 12 hours he/she will immediately be ineligible to practice or compete, and his/her athletics grant-in-aid will be revoked unless otherwise approved by the Department of Athletics. Graduating seniors who need less than 12 credit hours to complete degree requirements may receive an exception to enroll in less than 12 credit hours.
FULL TIME ENROLLMENT
All attempts are calculated in the cumulative GPA with the following exceptions:

For students admitted as transfer students: when the repeated course was taken within the student’s first semester at NMSU or for students admitted as freshmen: when the repeated course was taken within the student’s first 24 credit hours attempted (including transfer credits) or within the semester during which the student exceeded the 24th credit hour attempted. You are permitted to repeat courses according to NMSU guidelines; however, once a course is used for satisfactory progress, it may not be used for that purpose again. [NCAA Bylaw 14.4.3.5.6]

DROPPING BELOW FULL-TIME STATUS OR WITHDRAWING FROM SCHOOL
If, for any reason, you drop below 12 credit hours or withdraw from the university during any semester of enrollment your financial aid may be canceled. In addition, you will immediately forfeit your athletic eligibility for that semester and potentially jeopardize your future eligibility status. Prior to withdrawing from the institution or dropping below full-time status; you should:

1. Schedule an appointment with the Associate Athletics Director/Sports Administration & Academic Services and/or Director of Academic Services to discuss your reason for dropping below 12 credit hours or withdrawal from the university.
2. YOU must contact residence life and dining services offices directly. The Athletic department is not permitted to process your cancellations for housing, registration, room, board, or any other service. In addition to cancellation of all agreements, you must immediately return your textbooks to the Bookstore. You are responsible for any fees incurred due to incomplete withdrawal procedures
3. Should you wish to transfer from NMSU you must follow all guidelines above and request Notification of Transfer. Questions should be directed to the Department of Athletics Compliance.

NCAA POLICY: MAINTAINING YOUR ATHLETIC COMPLIANCE

GENERAL INFORMATION
At the initial team meeting prior to each season of competition, the Department of Athletics Compliance presents general departmental policies, NCAA athletic eligibility standards and requires appropriate personal information from each student-athlete. The Sports Medicine Staff presents information relevant to training room operation, medical details, physical examinations, and rehabilitation procedures.

EXTRA BENEFITS
An extra benefit is any special arrangement by a University employee or a representative of the University’s athletics interests to provide student-athletes, their relatives, or friends a benefit not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation. Receipt or acceptance of such a benefit by a student-athlete, their relatives, or friends is not a violation of NCAA legislation if it is demonstrated that the same benefit is generally available to the University’s students or their relatives or friends or to a particular segment of the student body (e.g., foreign students, minority students) determined on a basis unrelated to athletic ability [NCAA Bylaw 16.02.3].

Friendships or acquaintances with individuals established in the recruitment process or after arrival on campus in most instances are a result of being a student-athlete, and thus, receipt of benefits from these individuals by a student-athlete, their relatives or friends is prohibited by NCAA regulations.

During your enrollment at New Mexico State University you may befriend individuals or families in the community who might wish to provide you with a more “home-like” atmosphere. Please be aware that you are becoming “friends” with a representative (“athletics booster”) and/or employee of the University does not change their status as far as NCAA rules are concerned. For example, the provision of any type of material item (i.e., birthday gift, use of car, meals, lodging, loan of money, Christmas gift, etc.) by such an individual or family to you, your relatives, or friends could result in a NCAA rules violation and jeopardize your eligibility.

EXAMPLES OF NON-PERMISSIBLE EXTRA BENEFITS INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:

FRIENDS OR RELATIVES
- May not receive expenses for visiting the student-athlete at any site

BENEFITS, GIFTS AND SERVICES FROM THE PUBLIC
- Free or reduced-cost services for you or your friends or family
- Use of telephone or credit card without charge
- Use of tickets to any event, dinner, use of a car, etc. from commercial establishment without charge or at a discounted rate
- Receipt of loan
- Use of an automobile
- Free or reduced-cost lodging
- Free or reduced-cost meals
- Free or reduced-cost transportation
- Receipt of gifts or merchandise

Receipt of extra benefits will render you ineligible. Student-Athletes seeking assistance or clarification regarding the NCAA’s extra benefit rules should contact the Compliance Office at (575) 646-1028.

ASK AGGIE COMPLIANCE BEFORE YOU ACT! **
AMATEURISM
You are not eligible for participation in a sport if you have ever:

- Taken pay, or the promise of pay, for competing in that sport

This entails requirements that student-athlete receive certain number of days off during that academic year and establish a time management plan. Below are some of the requirements under this provision. The scheduling of practice and required athletically related activities is part of these requirements under time management. As we begin to meet these requirements for the upcoming year we are asking that sports plan a calendar a month in advance. Additionally, if changes are to be made to the calendar/schedule student-athletes should be given at least 24-hour notice of the changes. We are planning to have a session to go over this information for coaches/staff soon as well. Please let us know if you have any questions on these.

Required Athletically Related Activities. Required athletically related activities include any activities, including those that are countable in the daily and weekly limitations that are required of a student-athlete. Such activities include, but are not limited to, the following:

The Department of Athletics at New Mexico State University is committed to providing their student-athletes with the utmost comprehensive care to ensure their success by providing programs and resources that enhance student life and promote a positive campus experience. Although the use and possession of marijuana is legal under New Mexico law, it is not allowed on the NMSU campus. The use and possession of marijuana is prohibited by federal law, by the NMSU Student-Athlete Code of Conduct, and by the NCAA.

Due to the physical demands of intercollegiate athletics, and the potential physical and emotional damage that can result from illicit drug use, the NMSU Department of Athletics condemn the use of any illegal or illicit drugs or performance enhancing products that impair or endanger the safety of our student-athletes. Because of the Department of Athletics’ concern for our student-athletes health and well-being, as well as for the integrity of the intercollegiate athletics program at NMSU, a drug education, monitoring, and treatment program has been implemented.

DRUG EDUCATION

The Department makes every effort to educate our student-athletes concerning the dangers of drug abuse. Therefore, drug education programs and presentations are offered throughout the year. Additionally, the sports medicine staff has educational materials available to all student-athletes. Educational material is also available at the Aggie Health and Wellness Center.

Substance abuse is defined as the habitual taking of addictive, illegal, and/or illicit substances causing a change in personal behavior and/or habits that negatively affect the individual. The NMSU Department of Athletics puts forth a constant and continued effort to support and provide resources to its student-athletes. In the event a student athlete is suspected of habitual substance abuse, the Director of Sports Medicine will be notified. The student-athlete will meet with the Director of Sports Medicine, Director of Athletics and the Head to discuss available resources and treatment options. After, the student-athlete will have a meeting with the on-campus substance abuse counselor and the Athletics’ Mental Health Specialist.

The Athletics’ Mental Health Specialist along with the substance abuse counselor will have recommendations of the student-athlete’s treatment plan. It is the student-athlete’s responsibility to follow and complete all recommendations set for them by the Athletics’ Mental Health Specialist and substance abuse counselor. Any refusal and/or non-completion of these recommendations may have sanctions imposed on them by the Director of Athletics and/or the Head Coach.

If there is a confirmation of substance abuse, the Director of Athletics and the Head Coach have the authority to impose consequences as they seem fit. Regardless of consequences, the student-athlete will still have all the available resources and treatment options at their disposal.

INSURANCE COVERAGE

NMSU ATHLETICS INSURANCE INFORMATION
NMSU carries an accident insurance policy which provides coverage of athletically related medical conditions. This policy is considered a “secondary coverage” and is applied after a student-athlete’s personal medical insurance has been used. All non-scholarship athletes must carry current health insurance coverage. Any NMSU student-athlete that has incurred an athletic injury must report the injury immediately to the Athletic Training Staff for documentation. Most insurance policies require that injury evaluation and treatment must begin immediately (but not later than 90 days) after the injury in order to be covered by the policy. NMSU’s policy sets a limit for payment for medical care after an athletic injury for two years. The student-athlete and/or parent should be aware that either their own insurance or NMSU’s insurance may contact them for information regarding the injury or other information in order to process the claim. In most cases, bills will also be sent to the student-athlete and/or the parents. If an insurance company sends a student-athlete or parent a bill or request for information, it will only be sent to the student-athlete or parent and not to NMSU. Failure to respond to information requests may result in delay or denial of the bill payment, which could affect personal credit ratings, or result in the student-athlete being responsible for payment. All medical bills that are received by the student-athlete and/or parents should be forwarded immediately to the Athletics Department Insurance Clerk located in the Athletic Training Facility in the Fulton Athletics Center. If a student-athlete is not covered by parental or personal health insurance, the Athletics Department reserves the right to choose the medical providers for any medical conditions that NMSU or their insurance will pay for. Medical coverage for student-athletes stops when athletic eligibility is exhausted, or when an athlete is no longer associated with the team.

MEDICAL EXPENSES
You must report any athletically related injury or illness to your team athletic trainer before the Athletic Department can help with expenses. The Department will not pay costs associated with second opinions unless directed by the team physician. The Department will assist with payment for rehabilitation when referred by the team physician.

EYE WEAR
One set of contact lenses, prescription goggles or glasses may be provided by the Athletic Department ONLY if they are deemed necessary for athletic competition. An additional eye examination and / or prescription change is normal as is occasional replacement of a lost or damaged lens. Eye glasses for reading and class work will not be covered.

DENTAL INJURY
The Department will pay for dental injury to sound natural teeth incurred as a result of your athletic activity. No payment is provided for charges if the injury occurs and the required mouth guard protection per sport rules is not worn. NMSU will not pay for routine cleaning, filling cavities, extraction of wisdom teeth or other specific dental procedures not related to or as a result of athletic participation.
HEALTH & WELFARE

ALCOHOL POLICIES
All students attending the New Mexico State University are responsible to abide by the State of New Mexico criminal laws regarding alcohol possession and use. The laws of the State of New Mexico set the minimum age of 21 years of age for the purchase and consumption of alcoholic beverages. Those who are of the minimum age and older are prohibited from selling or providing alcoholic beverages to those whom are under 21 years of age.

The Athletics Department does not condone the illegal or irresponsible use of alcohol under any circumstances. If legally of age, student-athletes who consume alcoholic beverages are expected to do so responsibly understanding the risks associated with alcohol use and abuse. All student-athletes are prohibited from the consumption of or being under the influence of alcoholic beverages in connection with any team function. A team function for purposes of this policy includes the following:

1. When traveling to or from a site or at that site with the team, as a representative of the team or coaching staff, and/or serving in an official capacity for the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics,
2. At any intercollegiate athletic event, including parties organized by team members, on or off campus, and
3. At any time in public while representing the team or the University (ex. Summer camps, clinics, recruiting activities, community service, etc.)

In addition, student-athletes are expected to adhere to the University’s Student Code of Conduct & Alcohol Policy’s and the University’s Department of Residence Life resident hall rules.

Any student-athlete violating any of these policies may be subject to disciplinary action by his/her team, Coach, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, and/or the University. Students serving in an official capacity for the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics may be subject to disciplinary action by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, and/or the University.

BINGE DRINKING & HIGH-RISK ALCOHOL CONSUMPTION
The New Mexico State University, adheres to the principle that there is no place in intercollegiate athletics for substance abuse of any kind. The Athletics Department recognizes that for student athletes there are additional pressures associated with participation in intercollegiate sports. As a consequence of such pressure’s student-athletes may be at risk to engage in unhealthy behavior patterns to cope with stress. Therefore, the Athletics Department considers the misuse and abuse of alcohol as an unhealthy and inappropriate response to stress. Experimental and/or recreational intoxication can have harmful effects on the overall health of student-athletes. Hence, the Athletics Department does not condone drunkenness and/or public intoxication at any time for any student-athlete. Student-athletes who become drunk will be held accountable for their actions.

“High-risk alcohol consumption” is any form of abusive alcohol consumption. High-risk alcohol consumption is strictly prohibited for student-athletes. Behavioral examples of high-risk alcohol consumption include, but are not limited to, drinking games, drinking to the point of physical illness, the possession or use of any instrument of alcohol abuse (ex. beer bong), and binge drinking. Binge drinking, as defined by New Mexico State University health professionals, is 5 or more drinks in a sitting/row for males and 4 or more drinks in a sitting/row for females.

NUTRITIONAL SUPPLEMENTS
The NMSU Athletics Department does not recommend the use of any dietary supplement by any of its student-athletes. Dietary supplements that are sold over the counter and through the internet are under-regulated by the U.S. FDA. Therefore, no one can guarantee the product’s purity, safety or effectiveness. Impure supplements can cause a positive drug test under the NCAA or NMSU’s drug testing program. Athletes are advised that the use of dietary supplements is at the user’s own risk. The list of ingredients and claims made by a manufacturer are not necessarily backed up by reliable, scientific research. Please ask a member of the Athletic Training staff about any dietary supplement before use. Questions can also be directed to the Resource Exchange Center of Drug Free Sport, the testing agency for the NCAA.
USE OF TOBACCO PRODUCTS
The use of tobacco products by a student-athlete is prohibited at any team function (See definition of team function under Alcohol Consumption). A student-athlete who uses tobacco products during practice or competition shall be disqualified for the remainder of that practice or competition (adopted by NCAA 1/11/94, effective 8/1/94).

HARASSMENT
At New Mexico State University, student-athletes are part of a culturally and socially diverse community. They are expected to respect the dignity and sensitivity of all members of that community regardless of their national, ethnic or cultural background, sexual orientation, gender, ability or creed.

Consistent with the University’s policy actions that intentionally intimidate, humiliate or demean individuals or groups are unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Student-athletes are expected to contribute to an environment that promotes community spirit and develops positive understanding and interactive relationships.

Observation of any acts of harassment must be reported to the NMSU Police Department or the office of Student Judicial Services.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT
The NCAA requires that all student-athletes, coaches and staff be educated each year on sexual violence prevention, intervention and response, to the extent allowable by state law and collective bargaining agreements.

New Mexico State University has clearly stated that sexual harassment will not be tolerated on campus. Sexual harassment is defined as:

1. Unwelcome sexual advances
2. Unwelcome requests for sexual favors
3. Other behavior of a sexual nature where
   A. Submission to such conduct is made whether explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or participation in a university-sponsored educational program or activity
   B. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for academic or employment decision affecting that individual
   C. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s academic or work performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational or working environment.

Rape or sexual assault is commonly perceived as a violent and forceful act perpetrated by a stranger. In fact, rape by an acquaintance, known as date rape, is far more common and usually involves the use of alcohol.

Typically, in date rape or acquaintance rape the two parties are familiar with one another and perhaps even friends. The situation may begin with a date or merely informal socializing at a party, alcohol is consumed and an assorted set of signals sent and received between two individuals, real or perceived. The end result is a sexual encounter that may have been preceded by a series of consensual activities, at least in the mind of one of the partners. However, date rape should never be considered a misunderstanding or a communication problem. “No” means “no” at any time. Student-athletes are expected to comport themselves in a manner where the rights of others are respected. Inappropriate sexual behavior, including verbal harassment, may result in sanctions by the University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and civil authorities.
HAZING
Hazing is a fundamental violation of human dignity. It is strictly prohibited at NMSU. The University defines hazing as “intentionally or recklessly subjecting any person to the risk of bodily harm, or severe emotional distress, or causing or encouraging any person to commit an act that would be a violation of law or university regulations, for the purpose of initiating, promoting, fostering, or confirming any form of affiliation with a student group or organization, as defined by the Code of Student Conduct. The expressed or implied consent of the victim will not be a defense.” Examples of hazing include, but are not limited to:

- Forced consumption of alcohol or other substances
- Sleep deprivation
- Use of alcohol in drinking games or contests
- Paddling
- Forced tattooing or branding
- Creation of excessive fatigue
- Compulsory servitude
- Theft or misuse of property belonging to others

All members of the University community share the responsibility to challenge and make known to the office of Judicial Programs acts of apparent hazing.

Apathy in the presence of hazing, or acquiescence to hazing, are not neutral acts. Individuals who participate in acts of hazing as perpetrators or victims are personally accountable under this policy, and the Code of Student Conduct.

GAMBLING & BRIBERY
Gambling on the outcome of athletic contests is all too prevalent in our society and can have a devastating effect on student-athletes if they engage in such activity.

Student-athletes and Athletic Staff members shall not knowingly:

1. Provide information to individuals involved in organized gambling activities concerning intercollegiate athletics competition
2. Solicit a bet on any intercollegiate team
3. Accept a bet on any team representing the institution
4. Solicit or accept a bet on any intercollegiate competition for any item (e.g. cash, shirt, dinner) that has a tangible value
5. Participate in any gambling activity that involves intercollegiate athletics through a bookmaker, a parlay card or any other method employed by organized gambling, including gambling activity conducted in a state sanctioned casino [NCAA Bylaw 10.3];
6. Solicit or accept a bet on a professional athletic team for a sport that has a NCAA sanctioned championship
7. Provide information to any individuals (including students and non-students) involved in organized gambling activities concerning intercollegiate athletic competition. Such information might include the mental attitude of a team or certain members of a team, the physical condition of certain individuals on a team, etc.

Examples of Non-Permissible Gambling Activities:

- Soliciting or accepting a bet on a Bowl Game, or Final Four Game
- Participating in a football or basketball pool, regardless of the size of the entrance fee or prize, including Fantasy Leagues via the Internet
- Soliciting or accepting a bet on a NFL, NBA, or MLB game
- Soliciting or accepting a bet on any aspect of an intercollegiate competition even on statistical categories (# of homeruns, # of penalties, yardage earned, etc.)

Any knowledge of student-athletes or Athletics administration or coaching staff members’ involvement in any of the above activities should be reported immediately to the Director of Athletics.
